

Mario Berta, MA

Founder and CEO, FlySpaces.com
www.marioberta.org

- Currently Founder and CEO of FlySpaces.com a tech-start up that empowers SMEs to get access to flexible office and retail space. Raised more than USD 3 Million from regional investors in the SEA's region.
- Senior Consultant in the PLDT Group (Philippines' largest Telecom and conglomerates) and various Conglomerates. Consulting about innovation, digital transformation, sales and Start-up Culture.
- Formerly Nova Founder's director for growth, a tech incubator and VC firm that boasts among its investor Richard Li (among HK's richest tycoon) and Asia Regional Co-Founder of Rocket Internet's Easy Taxi.
- True global professional with extensive experience in leadership, strategy, innovation and expansion. Passionate about empowering and enabling people, developing businesses, and supporting companies and institutions all around the World.
- Driven by success, strongly believes that we live in a World where relationships are the key to standing out of the crowd and excelling at doing business in present competitive environment.
- Built, managed and trained successful sales teams in Africa and in the APAC region, including Papua New Guinea, Macau, Angola, Nigeria, Philippines, Malaysia and Hong Kong.
- Area of expertise: Start-ups, IT / E-commerce, Mobile Payments, Social Media, Telecoms, Advertisement, Business Development / Sales, Training and Coaching.
- "Asia Expert" by founding and running multiple businesses for 6 years +
- Fluent in 4 languages: Italian, English, Spanish and Portuguese
- Contestant in the famous business reality show "The Apprentice", Spanish version.
- Master Degree in Business & Economics from University of Turin with exchange in IE Business School (Madrid)
- OMP (Owners Management Program) at IE Business School, Endeavor Growth at Stanford University
- Visiting Professor at IE business School
- Endeavor Entrepreneur.