

Climate Finance.

About this course

Created in collaboration with CFA Institute, this course provides an introduction to climate change and its related economic and environmental impacts, with a particular emphasis on the role of finance professionals in creating and implementing solutions to the global issues in this space. This applied course is designed to support business, finance, and accounting professionals as well as any individual seeking practical guidance around climate change and climate-related finance matters.

Learning outcomes

- Gain a solid foundational understanding of climate change, its drivers, its risks and consequences, and the role of climate finance
- Understand different climate initiatives and related governance and disclosure frameworks
- Demystify carbon pricing and accounting
- Understand the proposition of a sustainable economy and business models
- Gain practical knowledge for integrating climate risk into investment analysis and portfolio construction.

Who is it for

This course is ideal for anyone interested in climate change issues and their impact on business and finance.

Format: Self-paced online learning

Expected learning hours: 10

Study material completion period: 12 months

Certification: Complete the course and pass the assessment to gain your certificate of completion and digital badge.

Career Navigator level:

Proficient

Expert

Leader

Career Navigator capability: Sustainability

*Explore Career Navigator levels and capabilities here